

This product was developed by the Galveston: Take Action project at the Galveston County Health District in Texas City, TX. Support for this product was provided by a grant from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation® in Princeton, New Jersey.

A Diabetes Self-Management Program

Community Health Access Program
(CHAP)

Funding provided by:

HRSA Galveston County Health Access Plan Grant - CHAP

Robert Woods Johnson Foundation Grant

UTMB Office of Community Outreach

Galveston County Health District

CHAP Take Action

Cass, Tiernan Revised 11/04

Acknowledgments:

Content development: Darlene Cass, RN, BSN
Health Prevention Specialist
University of Texas Medical Branch
HRSA CHAP Grant, Robert Wood Johnson Grant

Curriculum and Instructional Design and Development:
Kathleen Tiernan, MS, CHES
Program Manager, Health Outcomes
UTMB Office of Community Outreach
HRSA CHAP Grant Evaluator

Provider Content: Umir Shah, MD, Medical Director
Galveston County Health District

Ben Raimer, MD, Vice President
UTMB Office of Community Outreach
HRSA CHAP Grant Primary Investigator

Content Validity: Nurse Educators, Stark Diabetes Clinic UTMB
Vera Martinez, Community Relations Education Specialist
Sidney Bailey, RN, BSN, CDE
Sandra Green, R.N., M.S.N., CDE
Lynn Maarouf, M.S., R.D., L.D.

CHAP Planning Committee
Pat Jakobi, PhD
UTMB Office of Community Outreach

Process Validity: Robert Woods Johnson Grant
Carol Bronson, MS, CHES

Material Development: Beverly Presley
UTMB Office of Community Outreach
Bobbie Berg, RN, MSN, Consultant